

2017 Mountain Glory Entertainment

Gazebo Stage – North Main Street

10:00 AM – *Possom Creek

This band's performances include old-time, bluegrass, comedy, and gospel. Possum Creek performs at Woody's Original Mountain Music on Friday nights and they also can be found playing at area festivals, assisted living residences, rehabilitation centers, and church and community fund raisers. Members of the band include: Harold Harless - banjo and vocals, Jim Elkins - mandolin and vocals, Tom Ramey - guitar and vocals, and Carol Harless - bass. Harold and Jim are also songwriters. The signature song for Possum Creek is the popular "Five Pounds of Possum", complete with lovable possums.

11:30 AM – *Greg Conley

You do not want to miss this powerful performance. Known for strong vocals, Greg makes chills up and down your spine! Greg grew up in Marion singing with his family and you want to be there!

12:30 PM - *Addie's Chapel Gospel Choir

If you want your heart warmed and your spirit lifted, then Addies Chapel is who you want to hear. Singing together for over 30 years, Addie's Chapel is a local gospel choir that has been a mainstay at Mountain Glory Festival for many years. Always a crowd pleaser, many are original members and the wonderful harmony of years practice shines in every song. They do a variety of gospel music and hymns. We don't want to miss this wonderful choir.

2:00 PM - *Dave Dribbon & SIDECAR HONEY

SIDECAR HONEY's songwriting and sound make this band something original, stand out and special. Down home roots with a modern edge. Lead vocalist/guitarist Dave Dribbon is the songwriter; Kimberly Tzakos is the other lead vocalist, adding Motown and Soul to the mix. The original songs are Indie/Americana/Rock. Strong gritty vocals with rich harmonies and a dynamic and sometimes heavy backbeat. The songs are complimented by Simon George, playing lead on piano. Daniel Walton on bass and cello. Will Miller on drums; throws Rock, Cajun and Americana beats into the mix. Sidecar Honey is thoughtful Americana with pop hooks and rock propulsion, while they manage to feel at once fresh and familiar.

4:00 PM - *ShBoom

Doo Wop has a special place in the hearts of those who grew up in that wonderful era but it also has broad appeal to nearly all age groups today.

ShBoom is an A Cappella musical group that specializes in singing the Doo Wop music from the "Fabulous Fifties" that originated on street corners in Philadelphia in the mid to late fifties with some "newer" music like songs by Billy Joel to the mix. The group is based out of the Land of Sky Barbershop Chorus in Asheville and performs through western North Carolina.

ShBoom members are: Randy Johnston - Singing lead; Jeff Foster – Baritone; Ed Mathis – Bass; Franklin Pierce sings lead and tenor; Rook Wetzel sings baritone even when he is working at Cafe Marion; Scott Eggert sings a mighty fine lead and tenor; Jim Gordon sings baritone; Dan Gregg also sings those low down bass notes; and Mike Richard adds more base. You can follow ShBoom on their Facebook Page at: <https://www.facebook.com/ShBoomAcapellaQuartet>.
